

MEMBERSHIP GRADE CRITERIA

STUDENT (SIDiagE.)

- (1) age up to 20
- and (2) is engaged in an appropriate occupation
- or is studying

ASSOCIATE MEMBER (AMIDiagE.)

- (1) aged 20 and above
- and (2) is engaged in an appropriate occupation
- or is studying
- or is awaiting fresh employment
- or is undertaking research

MEMBER (MIDiagE.)

- (1) aged 25 and above
- and (2) is engaged in an appropriate occupation
- or is studying
- or is awaiting fresh employment
- or is undertaking research
- or is retired
- and (3) occupies (or has occupied) a responsible position
- or has made a written contribution to advance the knowledge of diagnostics
- or has attended at least TWO acceptable post-experience courses

FELLOW (FIDiagE.)

- (1) has been a Member of the Institution (MIDiagE.) for 2 years
- (2) aged 30 and above
- and (3) is engaged in an appropriate occupation
- or is studying
- or is awaiting fresh employment
- or is undertaking research
- or is retired
- and (4) occupies (or has occupied) a responsible position
- or has made a written contribution to advance the knowledge of diagnostics
- or has attended at least TWO acceptable post-experience courses
- and (5) has made a significant contribution to the technology of diagnostic engineering
- or by participation as an active technical correspondent
- or has made a significant contribution to the OBJECTS of the Institution
- and (6) submits a case study, meeting the requirements of the 'Case Study Scheme', with application to upgrade to Fellow.

N.B. "a responsible position" is one in which a person is permitted to act with a minimum of direction but is personally responsible for the outcome of his activities. It may be related to technical complexity, physical hazards or supervision of others.